I ^{want to} wanna create a website, on which everyone can order straight up from the factories that produce products themselves, thus cutting out the middleman, such as supermarkets and such ^{so on}. ~~It would benefit people~~

It would benefit people by lowering the price for products that people would pay. While also, maybe removing the need for advertisement on TV, from which prices of products ~~stem~~ the most. However, you could argue that this would put alot of shops ~~for~~ out of business, and could hurt consumers in the end

I think it's a great idea, as it can help to fight with ever/rising prices.

One sunny summer day, two girls Anna and Alyona walked around the city. Alyona felt sick, besides it was very hot outside. Alyona said: "I'm very hot. Would we go to a cool place?" Anna replied: "There is an ice cream shop nearby. Can we go there?" "OK" - Alyona replied and they went to the shop. When they came to the shop,

Anna helped Alyona choose the taste of ice cream.
After paying for the purchase, they sat down at the table and began to relax. A few minutes later, their order was brought to them. Alyona felt better and the girls went for a walk further.

My dream website would be a business website selling modern clothes for teenagers. The site would be called "Satoru clothes" and it would offer a wide range of stylish and affordable clothing options for teens of all ages.

The site would be easy to navigate, with clear categories for different types of clothing, such as ~~tops~~, ~~bottoms~~, dresses, ~~outwear~~ and ~~accessories~~. There would also be a section for new arrivals and a sale section.

The purpose of the site would be to provide teens with a one-stop shop for all their clothing needs. I believe that the site would be successful because it would offer a unique combination of style, affordability and convenience.

Polina and Tasia ^{are the} best friends since ^{their} childhood, ^{they} decided to spend the day off in a cozy cafe. The sunny day was conducive to wonderful walks, and when they went inside, they immediately felt the atmosphere of comfort and warmth.

Today, their main desire was ice cream. They came to a showcase where different varieties were on display - from classic vanilla to exotic mango. Polina chose ~~the~~ chocolate ice cream with nuts, and as for the Tasia, she decided to try ~~the~~ strawberry ice cream with pieces of berries.

They happily sat down at a table by the window, enjoying a sweet treat and talking about life, dreams and plans for the future. Every piece of ice cream brought them joy, and ringing laughter sounded the cafe. This simple moment became for them another bright page in their friendship, which they kept as the most valuable.
